Little League

Weldonian Band, Many Celebrities Participate

The nationally famous Weldonian marching band, Harry "Cookie" Lavagetto, Myrtle McLean, Albany's retiring city clerk, Ronald McDonald, the clown, and many other honored dignitaries and guests will be featured in the Albany Little League opening day parade Saturday, April 27, starting at 11 a.m.

The league's opening ceremonies will begin immediately following the parade at the baseball diamonds in the University Village at Monroe and San Pablo Avenues.

Prize tickets will be given to spectators throughout the parade by Ronald McDonald and the Continental Baking Company's clown. Ticket numbers will be drawn after the ceremonies and before the first baseball game which will begin at 12:30.

More than 1,000 participants are expected in this city's "Biggest Little Parade," while Joe McConahy, parade chairman, will continue to obtain as many surprises and baseball supporters as possible.

Twenty-one baseball teams will "dress up" for this occasion. Dignitaries will include Mayor Richard Clark, grand marshal; Cookie Lavagetto, honorary grand marshal; Myrtle McLean, special honored guest who is retiring from the office of city clerk; Lewis Howell, George Hein, Joe Carlevaro and Hubert Call, Albany Councilmen; Lewis Sherman and Nick Petris, State Senators; Joseph Bort, Alameda County Board of Supervisors; Albany Park and Recreation Commissioners Mrs. Dario Meniketti, Bill Miller, John Klaydon, Bill Culley, Jr., and Frank Graeber; John Miller, Assemblyman; Gerald Browne, Albany Fire Chief; Bud Rooney, Director of Parks and Recreation; Hal Swanson and Dick Martins, Little League district representatives; Larry Saler, city attorney; Dr. Robert McMahon, Albany Health Officer and a representative of Congressman Jeffery Cohelan's office. Leading the parade will be Del Wisenor, president of the league, who will also officiate at opening ceremonies.

Baseball celebrities will be Lavagetto, Augie Galan, former Chicago Cubs star; Ray Lammano, former Cincinnati Red's star; Ray Hamrick, former Oakland Oaks star, and Jim Landis from the Chicago White Sox.

A special treat and a "first" will be the appearance of wives of the Oakland Athletics who will include Mesdames Paul Lindblad, Danny Cater, Mike Herschger, Jim Gosger and Jack Akers.

Other parade units are the Smith American Jazz Band, Albany High School Intermediate Band, St. Mary's Pep Band, Schriener's Glockenspiel and Drum Corps, Albany Lion's Club car, University of California float with Oski Dolls, University of California's Oski, Maid of Albany Sherry Runnion and her court, El Cerrito Veterans of Foreign Wars Junior Girls unit 6422 drill team, El Cerrito Veterans of Foreign Wars color guard, San Pablo twirlers, San Pablo pom pon girls, University Villagettes, Albany High school pom pon girls, Albany-Berkeley chapter of United Nations float, Sam's Pharmacy float, Albany Fire Department's new snorkel, Richmond American Legion post 10 color guard and Albany YMCA Indian Guides.

Library Week

Mayor Richard O. Clark has proclaimed this week as National Library Week in Albany, urging residents to visit and take advantage of Albany Free Library. Theme of the week is "Be All You CAN Be."

Eye Clinic At Pre-School

Amblyopia eye clinic will be held for all children four and five years of age at Albany Pre-School, 850 Masonic, from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. Saturday, May 4.

Amblyopia is a condition in which eyes are not used equally and permanent eye damage can result.

The clinic is free and sponsored by the Pre-School Mothers' Club under the direction of Mrs. Freda Hanelt, Albany Public Health nurse.

Walter Miller Slides for Live Wires

Walter Miller, world traveler and lecturer, will show slides of Pompeii and Herculaneum at the regular meeting of Live Wires at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Friendship room of Security Savings and Loan.

The deadline for payment for the trip to North Shore on May 18 is April 26.

Virginia Strauss and Ruth Faulkner will serve refreshments.

Alice Cannon Funeral Thursday

Alice (Mrs. Charles) Cannon of 1136 Washington, who was operations supervisor for Mechanics Bank for 23 years, died Monday at Albany hospital.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tonight at Ellis-Olson mortuary, where services will be conducted at 9 a.m. Thursday, followed by 9 a.m. Mass at St. Ambrose Catholic church. Interment will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

She had worked at the Albany branch before her recent transfer to Mira Vista branch and had lived in Albany 31 years. She was a member of Albany unit 292, American Legion auxiliary.

Myrtle McLean Honored Friday

THIS IS AN overall view of Goodman Hall in Jack London Square last Friday night when about 220 friends feted City Clerk Myrtle J. McLean at a Recognition Party. She was named Albany's Distinguished Citizen of 1968 by the Inter-Club Council, which sponsored the affair; had been Citizen of the Day on KABL that day, received a California Senate Resolution, Resolutions from Alameda County Board of Supervisors, Albany City Council and Albany Municipal Employees, plus $300 and numerous gifts from the many organizations to which she belongs. Joe Dagna was master of ceremonies during the fun-filled evening. Mrs. McLean is retiring after 41 years of service to Albany.

Earthworms to Council

Note of Thanks

Sincere thanks to my many friends, and especially to the committee, for the wonderful "Recognition Party" last Friday night.

It was a real tribute, one I shall long remember. I only hope I can live up to it all.

Again, my thanks and appreciation until I can thank you, each and every one, personally.

Summary Of Council Action

Due to lack of space and many activities to report in this issue, the Times is printing only a summary of Council action during a two-hour session Monday.

DENIED, following public hearing, an appeal from the decision to deny by Planning and Zoning commission on application for a use permit to operate a rest home at 1533 Posen by Dorothy I. McCray, and a request for a variance by Mrs. McCray.

DIRECTED that the necessary ordinance be prepared for undergrounding utilities on Masonic Ave., between Solano and Brighton Aves., as first step toward new street lighting. A petition submitted to Council to form the district was signed by 45 of the 48 property owners involved. Only one resident was apposed. Two were not available.

PASSED to print (see legal today) the Business License Ordinance.

APPROVED resolutions appointing John D. Duncan as Traffic and Safety Commission, extending leave of absence to Joanne F. Snow and commending Myrtle J. McLean on her years of service to the city.

AUTHORIZED the Mayor to proclaim April 21-27 as National Library Week and May 13-19 as Israel Twentieth Anniversary Concert Week; Administrative Officer to submit studies of Albany streets to the Division of Highways, Park and Recreation commission to proceed with cost estimates for review of needs for rehabilitation of parks and facilities and acquisition of park and recreation areas, to be set up on a priority basis; the Mayor to call a work session with the Library

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Albany Little League will hold its opening game on Saturday, April 27, 1968, with a parade, ceremonies following the parade and other activities at the Little League diamonds in University Village; and

WHEREAS, Albany Little League is a fast growing team, offering our youngsters an opportunity to enjoy baseball under proper supervision; and

WHEREAS, there are now 25 teams to absorb the 350 Albany youths between the ages of eight to 16; and

WHEREAS, team sports such as baseball afford such wonderful training in morals, body building and comradeship, all of which fits our young boys for the rigorous competition of life and the ability to confidently face the future of which they will be an integral part.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Richard O. Clark, Mayor of the City of Albany, do hereby proclaim Saturday, April 17, 1968, as LITTLE LEAGUE DAY, and urge that everyone show an interest and support by viewing the parade and attending the game, thus giving individual encouragement to the Little League.

RICHARD O. CLARK
Mayor of the City of Albany

"The amount of annual license tax due and payable by the following businesses, doing business within the City of Albany, is hereby determined to be either that amount established by Option "A" hereof, or that amount which is calculated in accordance with and under the provisions of Option "B" hereof, which encompasses his gross receipts, as such person has elected by the information set forth in his application:
Theaters
Bowling Alleys
Golf Courses
Pool Rooms
Model Auto Racing
Barber Shops
Beauty Salons
Professional Offices, including, but not limited to, medical, dental, attorneys at law, accounting and real estate offices.
Service Establishments
And any other business where items subject to sales or use tax represent less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the gross receipts of said business per year.
Option "A"
Payment of the license taxes calculated at 1.5 times the rates delineated in Section 17.31 hereof.
Option "B"
Payment of license taxes of $30 plus $1.50 per $1,000.00 of gross receipts over $20,000.00 per year.
"Provided, however, if twenty-five percent (25%) or more of the annual gross receipts are subject to sales tax, said business shall be exempt from the requirements of either Option "A" or Option "B" as hereinabove set forth, and said businesses shall be subject to the provisions of Section 17.31 of this Chapter.
"The term 'sales tax' as used herein shall have the same definition as that used in the Revenue and Taxation Code of the State of California.
"The term 'gross receipts' as used herein is hereby defined to mean the total amount of the sale price of all sales and/or the total amount charged or received for the performance of any act or service or employment of whatever nature it may be, for which a charge is made, or credit allowed, whether or not such act or service or employment is done as a part of or in connection with the sale of materials, goods, wares or merchandise, and when such act or service or employment occurs as a result of any activity within the City of Albany. Included in 'gross receipts' shall be all receipts, cash, credits, and property of any kind or nature, except as hereinafter excluded, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of the materials used, labor or service costs, interest paid or payable, or losses or other expenses whatsoever, as shown by either the Federal or State Income Tax Return required to be filed by such person. Excluded from 'gross receipts' shall be:
(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales;
(2) Credit allowed on property accepted as part of the purchase price and which property may later be sold;
(3) Any tax required by law to be included in or added to the purchase price and collected from the consumer or purchaser;
(4) Such part of the sale price of property returned by purchasers upon rescission of the contract of sale as is refunded either in cash or by credit;
(5) Amounts collected for others where the business is acting as an agent or trustee to the extent that such amounts are paid to those for whom collected;
(6) The amount of each single sale to a single customer in excess of $50,000.00 where the gross profit derived therefrom does not exceed one percent (1%) of the sale price;
(7) The amount of gross receipts which has been the measure of a license tax paid to any other city.
"The provisions of this Section shall not apply to persons employed as solicitors or peddlers by any person who has a fixed place of business in the City and who hold a valid unexpired license for such business in the City. The employer shall make application to the license collector and shall furnish such information and make such affidavits as may be required. Upon the determination being made that such solicitor or peddler is entitled to exemption under the provisions of this Section and upon his complying with the provisions of all other ordinances relating to peddling or soliciting, the license collector shall issue a free license to such person, which shall show upon its face that the license tax is exempt."
(b) Section 17.31 of Article II, Chapter 17 is hereby amended by deleting the words "Twenty Dollars ($20.00)" therefrom, and in lieu thereof inserting the words "Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00)", and said Section shall hereafter read as follows:
"Sec. 17.31. Same-Amount-Generally.
"Every person commencing, transacting and carrying on at a fixed place of business in the City any business other than those enumerated in Sections 17.30 and 17.32 of this Code shall pay an annual license tax based upon the average number of employees employed in such business of Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for the first employee, Five Dollars ($5.00) each for the next twenty-four (24) employees, Three Dollars ($3.00) each for the next twenty-five (25) employees, and Two Dollars ($2.00) for each employee in excess of fifty (50). The license tax may, at the option of the licensee, be paid in equal quarterly or semi-annual installments, in which event the license granted shall be for each installment period for which payment is made.
"Every person commencing, transacting and carrying on at other than a fixed place of business in the City any business other than those enumerated in Section 17.30 of this Code shall pay a quarterly license tax based upon the average number of employees and upon the annual rates provided for in the preceding paragraph.
"License taxes for electrical work, plumbing work and gas appliance work shall be calculated under the provisions of this Section."
Section 2: This Ordinance shall be published once in the "Albany Times", a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Albany, which said newspaper is designated for that purpose, and shall become effective on and after its final passage, adoption and publication.

Machado-Volz Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Michael G. Volz
(Adrienne J. Machado)

Adrienne Jane Machado, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Machado of Albany, was recently married at St. Ambrose Catholic church to Michael George Volz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Volz of Albany.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of ice white organza and Venise lace over taffeta. Her chapel length train fell from the fitted bodice. The skirt was of cage design and appliques of imported Venise lace studded with seed pearls trimmed the gown. Her four tiered veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of Venise lace trimmed with cut Aurora Borealis crystals.

Sherry Volz, maid of honor, wore a turquoise floor-length gown with matching headpiece. Other bridal attendants, Ann Machado and Linda Alvarez, wore gowns of lime green with matching headpieces.

Ernie Machado was best man. Ushers were Stephen Merritt and Kenneth Renz.

During the reception for 175 guests at Cerrito City Club, Mrs.

Machado, mother of the bride, received in a gown of turquoise silk while the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of beige lace.

Following a wedding trip to Catalina Island, they are at home in El Cerrito.

The bride, a graduate of Albany High school, is clerk-typist for an insurance company in San Francisco. Her husband, also an AHS graduate, is a graduate student and research assistant at the University of California.

Diana Kay Haley, daughter of Constance G. Haley of 1316 Grove St., Berkeley, became the bride of Jerry Davis Foott, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Foott of 635 San Gabriel, Albany, in rites Saturday afternoon, April 6, at Epworth Methodist church in Berkeley. The church was the same one in which his parents had been married.

Given in marriage by Bruce Herbert of Pleasant Hill, the bride wore a tailored floor-length

AWARDED $50

Genevieve Coen of 414 Cornell Ave., Albany, has been awarded $50 for a job improvement suggestion by Western Area, Military Traffic Management and Terminal Service at Oakland Army Base. Employed in the Finance and Accounting Division, she suggested a change of documents used for payment of allowances which is expected to result in savings of 347 man-hours annually.

frock of white satin with self back panel, high neckline and trim of seed pearls and lace. Her headpiece was of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and bouvardia.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Sue Haley, who wore a floor-length gown of daffodil-colored cotton and carried a cascade of daisies.

Best man was Jeff Foott, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers included Larry Eaton, John Olson and the bridegroom's cousin, Gregory Davis.

The bride's mother received in a blue coat and dress ensemble with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece dress of ice blue brocade with shrimp pink accessories. Both had white orchid corsages.

A reception for 165 guests followed in the church parlors.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Carmel, after which they are at home in Albany.

She is a graduate of Berkeley High school. The bridegroom, an Albany High school graduate, is a draftsman for Standard Oil.
